

Central & Eastern European Academic Source™

This multilingual resource includes peer-reviewed, scholarly content about Central and Eastern European countries and beyond to give a broad overview of the region. In addition, select vetted Open Access titles are also included to round out research.

Content Includes:

- Nearly 2,000 full-text titles
- More than 1,350 newly added full-text publications available through EBSCO
- Most of the journals included in the database are peer-reviewed and published by major universities or scholarly societies in the region
- Multidisciplinary coverage of many subjects including history, business, law and STEM
- Multilingual content represents 60 languages

Leading Publishers Represented:

- Bauman Moscow State Technical University
- Charles University in Prague
- Jagiellonian University
- Lomonosov Moscow State University
- National Research University Higher School of Economics
- Polish Academy of Sciences
- Tomsk State University
- University of Szeged
- University of Warsaw

Subjects Covered:

- Business
- Economics
- Education
- Humanities
- History
- International Relations
- Law
- Literature
- Medicine
- Politics
- Social Sciences
- STEM